

Jar Return Policy

When you place a coffee order online, you are automatically charged $1 to account for the cost of the glass mason jar that your coffee is packaged in. The jar is yours to keep. You may choose to give it back to us for re-use. Simply notify us by email and leave it on your doorstep when we deliver in your region. While we do not offer refunds for jars, if you order a second time with us and return your previous jar we will add an extra ounce of coffee beans to your order.
